MARKET SUMMARY

INDIA

- The Indian market experienced a roller coaster ride during the week, with sharp up-and-down movements primarily driven by significant fluctuations in the exchange rate.
- Demand from end buyers remains fair; however, challenges persist in the resale steel market. Credit terms have extended from one day to 10 days, reflecting continued weakness in the broader steel economy.
- Imported scrap prices remain elevated, preventing any drastic correction in market levels. Despite this, underlying weakness continues to persist in the local market.

BANGLADESH

- The Bangladesh market remains tight, with buyers continuing to show strong intent to secure fresh tonnage.
- However, tonnage availability remains extremely limited, creating a supply squeeze and increasing urgency among buyers.
- With demand outweighing supply, market appetite is building and higher-priced sales may emerge in the near term as buyers compete for available units.

PAKISTAN

- The Pakistani market remained stable this week, largely mirroring last week's conditions.
- Market sentiment remains unchanged, with no significant developments affecting pricing or buying interest.

TURKIYE

- The Turkish import market witnessed a slight decline of approximately USD 2, mainly due to increasing supply in Aliaga.
- Recycling yards are not aggressive with their pricing, reflecting a cautious market stance.
- In the short term, no increase in buyers' offers is expected, as supply conditions continue to weigh on sentiment.
